AVA

*Outdoor furniture with a

Ava is an outdoor furniture collection with a Mediterranean style and an evocative character that is transmitted especially through the presence, in the structure of the seats, of an element made of rope, inspired by latticework.

includes various types of seats (sofas, armchair, dining chair and a stool), as well as different types of tables (dining room, centre, side and high bar types).

The repertoire is completed by a lounge and a rocker, a piece that contributes even more to the design of that playful and relaxed atmosphere, typical of the Mediterranean style.

Designed by the architecture studio of the Valencian Carles Faus, in correspondence with this combination of geometry and Mediterranean style, Ava is a collection of contrasts, alternating smooth surfaces with curves, strong shapes with lightness, large volumes upholstered with light structures, and industrial materials with warm and natural materials.

This stringed element has such power, that it is what shifts the aesthetics of the entire collection towards a Mediterranean style, always in harmony with the contrasting base geometry of its different pieces.

Furniture for future.

The collection balances, through this unique ropework, the roundness and solidity of its shapes, providing lightness whilst harmonizing and reinforcing the core geometry of Ava's design.

ABOUT CARLES FAUS

With a background in both architecture and engineering, Carles Faus embarked on his journey by establishing his Algemésí-based studio in 2015. Over the years, the studio's growth has been nothing short of remarkable. It culminated in the unveiling of one of their early masterpieces, the "Carmen House." This distinctive dwelling garnered widespread acclaim. At the heart of Carles Faus' architectural marvels lies the essence of the Mediterranean. This timeless charm is meticulously woven into contemporary minimalism and innovative construction methods. His designs are a tribute to the rich tapestry of Mediterranean architecture, interpreted through a language of simplicity.
